02. EVENT OVERVIEW

This year's "Women of the Movement, Legacy Builders Annual Brunch" will be a celebratory event dedicated to honoring the legacy of trailblazing black women educators in Baltimore. This special occasion, held at the Lillie May Carroll Jackson Charter School, is designed to bring together the community to recognize and appreciate the invaluable contributions of these educators. As an event focusing on empowering young girls, especially those of color, in an all-girls middle school setting, it promises to be filled with inspiration, networking, and celebration.

03. PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Welcome and Opening Remarks: A welcome to all guests and an overview of the day's significance.
- Keynote Speaker: An inspiring address by a prominent figure in education or civil rights (TBD).
- Awards and Honors: Recognition of outstanding local educators and community leaders.
- Brunch and Networking: An opportunity to enjoy a delightful meal while engaging in meaningful conversations.
- Entertainment: Performances that reflect the cultural heritage and contributions of black women in education and include student performers.
- Closing Remarks: A reflective closing emphasizing the ongoing impact of the honorees' work.

04. SPECIAL FEATURES

- Educators Exhibit: Discover the impactful legacy of historic black female educators from Baltimore in our exclusive exhibit.
- Tribute to Trailblazers: Join us as we honor three extraordinary women, including Dr. Rosetta Stith, who have shaped the educational landscape in our community.

SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

Our event will host a dynamic mix of individuals, including local educators, community leaders, dignitaries, and advocates for girls' education. We extend a special invitation to our school's families and the broader school community, highlighting the event's role in empowering and inspiring our students, especially young girls of color. This gathering is an opportunity to unite different segments of our community in a shared vision of educational excellence and empowerment.

Your sponsorship of the "Women of the Movement" Annual Brunch goes beyond mere event support; it's an active participation in rectifying the historical underrepresentation of black women educators in Baltimore. Here's the profound impact your sponsorship will have:

Elevating Hidden Figures By sponsoring this event, you're helping to bring much-deserved recognition to black women educators whose contributions have been historically overlooked. Your brand will be associated with this noble cause, showcasing your commitment to diversity, inclusion, and historical accuracy.	Inspiring Young Girls Your support directly influences young girls in our community, especially students of color, by providing them with role models who look like them and have achieved great things. This has a lasting impact on their aspirations and self-esteem.
Community Empowerment Your involvement aids in creating a platform for community empowerment through education. It's a statement that you support the event and the broader goal of educational equality and empowerment in Baltimore.	Strengthening Educational Networks Your brand will gain visibility among educators and community leaders, aligning you with networks that are at the forefront of educational advancement and community development.
Long-Term Impact Sponsorship of this event contributes to a legacy of recognizing and honoring black women educators. This ongoing acknowledgment has the power to change narratives and influence future educational policies and practices.	Media and Public Relations Gain positive media exposure and public relations benefits by being part of an event that addresses important social issues and contributes to positive change in the community.
